Any potential Whistleblowers are advised to go through the Policy's contents carefully and exercise their rights judiciously.

1. Preface

A central tenet in Axis Capital's Policy on corporate governance is commitment to ethics, integrity, accountability, and transparency. To ensure that the highest standards are maintained in these aspects on an on-going basis and to provide safeguards to various stakeholders (including shareholders, depositors and employees) Axis Capital has formulated a "Whistleblower Policy" ("the Policy") that provides Employees and Board of Directors of the Company with the opportunity to address serious concerns arising from irregularities, malpractices and other misdemeanours committed by any personnel at Axis Capital by approaching a Committee set up for this purpose (known as the Whistleblower Committee). In case the offences are committed by senior management, the Policy enables Employees and Directors to report the concerns to the Audit Committee of the Board. As detailed in this document, this Policy is intended to encourage employees to report suspected or actual occurrence(s) of illegal, unethical or inappropriate actions, behaviours or practices by staff without fear of retribution.

2. Glossary of Terms

A glossary of terms used in the Policy is outlined below.

3. Scope and Coverage of the Whistleblower Policy and Exclusions

As stated above, this Policy is intended to address the concerns of Employees relating to any genuine cases of wrongdoing within Axis Capital, enabling them to report suspected occurrence(s) of illegal, unethical or inappropriate actions, behaviours or practices.

As the range of activities that constitute offence under the Whistleblower Policy is large and it may be difficult to list these exhaustively, the key wrongdoings are stated below:

- b) Misuse of office and authority for making illegal personal gains.

- d) Any fraud in preparation of financial statements.
- e) Failure to comply with legal, compliance and regulatory requirements.
- f) Misappropriation of funds.
- g) Actual or suspected fraud or irregularities including forgery or alteration of documents
- h) Criminal offences committed or likely to be committed that may implicate Axis Capital or otherwise adversely affect its reputation.
- i) Discrimination against Employees on grounds of sex, caste, religion, or disability.
- j) Cases of conflict of interest – e.g., investment decisions, purchase of goods and hiring of services where an Employee may have a vested interest.
- k) Any other form of inappropriate/unethical/unlawful action or conduct (conduct may be considered unethical if it undermines universal core ethical values such as integrity and honesty).

An Employee who has submitted three complaints or Protected Disclosures, which are seen to be in bad faith will no longer be eligible for further Protected Disclosures or complaints under the Whistleblower Policy.

The following types of complaints are excluded from the scope of this Policy:

4. Role of the Whistleblower

- (a) A Whistleblower is a person who will merely report a misdemeanour, as stated earlier, without acting as an investigator and will not, therefore, act on his own in conducting an investigative activity, other than as requested by the Designated Authority or the Audit Committee of the Board.
- (b) Following from the above, on detecting a wrong-doing or misdemeanour, the Whistleblower will not determine corrective or remedial action that may be warranted under the circumstances.
- (c) The Whistleblower should provide specific and verifiable details in the Protected Disclosure in appropriate language that is not offensive.
- (d) The Whistleblower can discuss all matters related to the Whistleblower Policy, including his role and the implications of submitting the Protected Disclosure with the Ethical Counsellor. The final decision to submit information under Protected Disclosure will, however, be the sole decision of the employee.
- (e) Though they would not necessarily be required to conclusively prove the points contained in the Protected Disclosure, in order to support their disclosure, the Whistleblower should provide sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case for investigation.

5. Protection available to the Whistleblower

- (a) The identity of the Whistleblower (in case revealed) shall be kept confidential and will not be revealed unless required in terms of an order of a court of law.
- (b) Complete protection will be given to the Whistleblower against retaliation or retribution consequent upon his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure.
- (c) A Whistleblower will not get protection under the Policy if he is himself found guilty of misconduct. In other words, while the Committee will take cognizance of the Protected Disclosure, the employee's misconduct will be dealt with separately.
- (d) The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties that a Whistleblower may face in the submission of a Protected Disclosure. For instance, he will be reimbursed expenses incurred in travel, boarding and lodging for tendering evidence, if warranted.
- (e) Suitable disciplinary action (including termination of service) may be taken against the Subject in case he is found guilty of misconduct against the Whistleblower, in retaliation of a complaint submitted.
- (f) In case any action has been initiated against the Whistleblower (for acts of omission or commission attributed to him) the disciplinary authority in such cases would be one level higher than the disciplinary authority in the normal course of action.
- (g) Any employee who assists in investigating a Protected Disclosure will also be protected to the same extent as the Whistleblower.
- (h) In case the protection to the Whistleblower as well as employees assisting in the investigation (as outlined above) is violated in any manner, the same may be reported to the Whistleblower Committee or the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

6. Composition of the Whistleblower Committee

The Whistleblower Committee of Axis Capital will comprise of such members as will be constituted by the Company from time to time. In case the complaint is filed against any of the members of the Whistleblower Committee or the Committee members have a conflict of interest, then that member will have to obtain recusal from the investigation.

7. Role of the Whistleblower Committee

- (a) The Committee will consider the credibility of the complaint submitted through the Protected Disclosure, the gravity of the issue raised and the likelihood of proving the allegation(s) from independent, verifiable sources.
- (b) The Committee would have the discretion to appoint any official or officials (considered suitable for the purpose) to carry out a preliminary investigation to establish the applicability of Whistleblower Policy.
- (c) The Committee will decide on carrying out further investigation upon the receipt of the report of the official undertaking the preliminary investigation.

10. Investigation and Redressal of the Complaint

- a) The Protected Disclosure or complaint received by the Whistleblower Committee will be examined by the Committee to determine if a prime-facie case exists for further investigation.
- b) However, the decision to conduct an investigation is by itself not an acceptance of the allegations. In other words, the investigation process is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process.
- c) The Subject will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and will have the opportunity to provide his inputs during the investigation.
- d) The identity of the Subject(s) as well as the Whistleblower will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the stage of the investigation.
